

Brain Mapping Center Special Seminar

Hosted By: Mirella Dapretto, PhD, Psychiatry, UCLA

“Functional Neural Correlates of Childhood Trauma and HPA Function Beginning with an Understanding of Neural Connectivity in Human Fetal Life”

Moriah E. Thomason, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor, Merrill Palmer Skillman Institute for Child and Family Development and Pediatrics, Wayne State University School of Medicine

Adjunct Professor, Department of Psychology, Wayne State University

Affiliated Faculty, Translational Neurosciences Program, Wayne State University School of Medicine

Director, Perinatal Neural Connectivity Unit, Perinatology Research Branch, NICHD/NIH/DHHS

Monday, July 8, 2013

2:00pm – 3:00pm

Brain Mapping Center Conference Room (221)

For more information contact: Mirella Dapretto (mirella@loni.ucla.edu)